Your Information

Data Processing

- The HSBC Group may use and share relevant information about you, your transactions and your relationships with the HSBC Group for identity verification, customer service, market research, insurance, audit and administrative purposes. This may include information provided by you, or someone acting on your behalf. Where appropriate (for example if you have relationships with other HSBC Group Companies in other countries), this information may be shared with HSBC Group Companies.
- Where such information is processed on our behalf by members of the HSBC Group and/or third parties outside the UK or European Economic Area, there may be less stringent data privacy laws. When we do this, we'll ensure there is an appropriate level of protection and that the transfer is lawful. We may need to transfer your information in this way to carry out our agreement with the account holder, to fulfil a legal obligation, to protect the public interest and/or for our legitimate interests. In some countries the law might compel us to share certain information, e.g. with tax authorities. Even in these cases, we'll only share your information with people who have the right to see it.
- We may use other HSBC Group companies and/or third parties to provide services on our behalf which may include the processing of information about you.
- Information may also be processed for the purposes of complying with applicable laws, including anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism laws and regulations and fighting crime and terrorism. This may require the disclosure of information to a UK or overseas governmental or regulatory authorities or to any other person we reasonably think necessary for these purposes.

Confidentiality

Information we hold about you will not be disclosed to anyone (including other members of the HSBC Group), other than where:

- We are legally required to disclose.
- We have a public duty to disclose.
- Our interests require disclosure.
- The disclosure is made with your consent.

Crime Prevention and Debt Recovery

- To prevent crime, verify your identity, recover debt and to meet our legal obligations, we may exchange information (both within the UK and, where appropriate, overseas) with other members of the HSBC Group and where appropriate, with fraud prevention, law enforcement, debt recovery agencies and other organisations including other lenders.
- If you give us false or inaccurate information and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering.

Miscellaneous

- To ensure that we carry out your instructions accurately, to help us to improve our service and in the interests of security, we may monitor and/or record your communications with us. Any recordings remain our sole property.
- If we receive a request from another financial services institution we will provide information required to verify your identity for money laundering prevention purposes.

More information about your rights and how we will use your personal information is detailed in our Privacy Notice, which can be found on our website ciiom.hsbc.com/privacy/.

If you require details of the fraud prevention agencies we use please call 0800 587 7008.

Accessibility

If you need any of this information in a different format, please let us know. This includes large print, braille, or audio. You can speak to us using the live chat on our website, by visiting one of our branches, or by giving us a call.

There are also lots of other options available to help you communicate with us. Some of these are provided by third parties who are responsible for the service. These include a Text Relay Service and a British Sign Language (BSL) Video Relay Service. To find out more please get in touch.
